Creative Brief

Project Summary: This site is based on Boston. It will allow the viewer to get a different look at Boston. This site will also inform the viewer about things like the history, culture, education, and the cows (which is a thing that happens in Boston).

Audience Profile: The main viewer focus of this site is anyone that is planing on maybe moving to the Boston area or is just looking to know more about Boston.

Home: Home will give you a little information about the site and Boston.

History: History will let you know a little about the past and how Boston became what it is today.

Culture: In this part of the site you will learn about what makes Boston, Boston.

Education: Education will let you know a little about the schools that are found in Boston.

The Cows: Here you will find information on the paintings and the Cow Parade.

Contact: Contact, here is where you can write a message about the site.
